MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : John F. Blake
Deputy Director for Administration

Hank:

1. As you will note, the attached invitation was extended to the Director at the request of the SIGNA Society, an organization of retired CIA Security Officers.

2. In extending their invitation they asked first for the Director and, in case of his lack of availability, you. I would urge you to accept on the merits of the case and also because of the history of last year. Last year, they invited both the Director and the Deputy Director and neither could attend. While they settled for an absolutely outstanding speaker, who gave a truly brilliant address (unfortunately, I cannot conveniently recall his name), I do believe it very much in order that you try to make it if you can.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : John F. Blake
Deputy Director for Administration

Sir:

The SIGNA SOCIETY, an organization of retired CIA Security Officers will hold their third annual convention on 8 and 9 October 1976 at the Holiday Inn at Tysons Corner.

They anticipate approximately 150 members and wives attending this year's convention and have inquired whether you might desire to address the group at your convenience between the hours of 5 p.m. and 8 p.m. on 9 October 1976.

Activities during the above period feature a cocktail party beginning at 5 p.m. and dinner scheduled for 7 p.m. The Chairman of the function, Mr. [REDACTED] has predicted that arrangements can be made to suit your schedule during the three hour period noted above. Should your schedule prohibit a short informal talk to this group, they would welcome your attendance even briefly at the cocktail party. This group has a high regard for the Agency and would be most appreciative to see and talk with you.
